

Three to Four Years

What should my child be able to do?

Hearing and Understanding	Talking
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Responds when you call from another room. • Understands words for some colors, like red, blue, and green. • Understands words for some shapes, like circle and square. • Understands words for family, like brother, grandmother, and aunt. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Answers simple who, what, and where questions. • Says rhyming words, like hat-cat. • Uses pronouns, like I, you, me, we, and they. • Uses some plural words, like toys, birds, and buses. • Most people understand what your child says. • Asks when and how questions. • Puts 4 words together. May make some mistakes, like “I goed to school.” • Talks about what happened during the day. Uses about 4 sentences at a time.